Le Bristol Paris announces the reopening of Le Jardin Français on April 19, 2025

Le Bristol Paris is pleased to announce the reopening of Le Jardin Français, its emblematic garden nestled in the heart of the hotel, as of April 19, 2025. A true haven of calm in the center of Paris, this outdoor space offers a refined dining experience for both Parisians and international guests.

Under the direction of Chef Arnaud Faye, the menu at Le Jardin Français highlights seasonal ingredients through a cuisine that is both precise and contemporary. Service is offered in a lush, tranquil setting designed for moments of relaxation and enjoyment.

With this reopening, Le Bristol Paris continues to embody the spirit of the hotel by offering a summer dining experience that reflects its heritage and surroundings.

Le Jardin Français will be open daily for lunch and dinner, weather permitting.
