SPECIAL Collaboration

HOTEL LA PALMA IS PROUD TO UNVEIL A SERIES OF EXCEPTIONAL COLLABORATIONS FOR THE 2025 SEASON. THIS YEAR, THE HOTEL CONTINUES ITS COMMITMENT TO CELEBRATING ITALIAN HERITAGE, CRAFTSMANSHIP, AND INNOVATION BY PARTNERING WITH SOME OF THE MOST PRESTIGIOUS NAMES IN LUXURY AND DESIGN, EACH REPRESENTING A PILLAR OF ITALIAN EXCELLENCE.

Founded in 1937 in Milan, Valextra is synonymous with discreet luxury, impeccable craftsmanship and Made in Italy excellence. Known for its exquisite leather goods, the brand embodies Italian excellence in artisanal precision, fusing timeless design with a modern sensibility. Continuing our long-standing collaboration with E. Marinella, the legendary Neapolitan brand that, for over a century, has been a symbol of sartorial excellence, embodying the finest Italian craftsmanship and timeless elegance. Founded in 1914 by Don Eugenio Marinella in Naples, the brand began as a small boutique specializing in handcrafted ties and shirts, inspired by the sophisticated style of British tailoring. Over time, its unparalleled quality and meticulous attention to detail captured the admiration of Neapolitan high society and international connoisseurs, transforming E. Marinella into an iconic name in luxury menswear. Today, under the leadership of Maurizio and Alessandro Marinella, respectively the third and fourth generations of the family, the brand continues to preserve its artisanal heritage while embracing modern luxury.

SPECIAL Collaboration

The spirit of Neapolitan tailoring continues with Isaia, a brand that has redefined men's luxury fashion with its distinctive approach to elegance. Established in Naples in the 1920s, Isaia has become a global symbol of refined Italian style, renowned for its impeccable cuts, innovative fabrics, and unmistakable red coral logo. This season, Hotel La Palma welcomes Isaia for an exclusive workshop in July, where guests will have the opportunity to experience the brand's latest collections, engage with expert tailors, and explore the art of Neapolitan craftsmanship in a setting that perfectly complements the brand's heritage.

No Italian celebration would be complete without an exceptional selection of fine wines, and Bellavista, one of Italy's most prestigious wineries, joins Hotel La Palma to enhance the sensory experience of the 2025 season. Founded in 1977 by Vittorio Moretti, Bellavista has established itself as one of the most distinguished wineries in Franciacorta, a region celebrated for its exceptional sparkling wines. Bellavista follows a philosophy of precision, simplicity, and a deep connection between people and the land. Every detail of the winemaking process is meticulously overseen, ensuring that each bottle embodies the character of Franciacorta and the passion of those who cultivate it. Today, Francesca Moretti, the family's oenologist, supported by Richard Geoffroy, leads the team of technicians in the winery and the vineyard. Guests will have the opportunity to discover Bellavista's signature cuvées through curated tastings and pairings, elevating their dining experience at Gennaro's, La Palma Bar & Terrace, and La Palma Beach Club.

"We take great pride in preserving the authenticity of Italian hospitality while embracing modern advancements that enhance the guest experience" says General Manager, Imelda Shllaku.

"Collaborations with iconic Italian brands further enhance this balance, bringing a sense of heritage and craftsmanship into a contemporary luxury setting.
